We enjoyed our stay overall and thought the property was very cute. The location was great, and the home itself was comfortable and had a lot of charm. There were a few maintenance issues that should be addressed. The two main concerns were that the bedrooms did not have window shades, and one of the bedroom air conditioners was leaking and spitting water. We were also unable to lock the front door using the code provided, so we had to leave the house unlocked whenever we went out. The host was very responsive and communicated well throughout our stay, but unfortunately these issues could not be resolved while we were there.. Overall, we enjoyed the property and would consider staying again if these maintenance issues are addressed.
